

Curriculum vitae

Personal details Dr. iur. Jens Newig
Assistant professor (wissenschaftlicher Assistent)
Born on 3 Mai 1970 in Kiel, Germany
Married
German citizenship

Office address University of Osnabrück
Institute of Environmental Systems Research
Chair of Resource Management
Barbarastr. 12
D-49069 Osnabrück
Phone: +49 (0) 541 / 969-2315
Fax.: +49 (0) 541 / 969-2368
E-mail: jens.newig@usf.uni-osnabrueck.de

Private address Carl-Diem-Str. 14
49080 Osnabrück
Phone: +49 (0) 541 / 911 56 97

Scientific career

- 03/2008 Submission of Habilitation in Political Science and Environmental Systems Science on 'Environmental Governance in the Light of Participation and Effectiveness: Case Studies and Models' at Osnabrück University
- Since 12/2001 Assistant Professor ('Wissenschaftlicher Assistent') at the Institute of Environmental Systems Research, University of Osnabrück, Chair of Resource Flow Management, Prof. Dr. Claudia Pahl-Wostl
- 10/2003 – 03/2007 Coordinator of the German-Austrian research project 'PartizipA – Participative Modelling, Actor and Ecosystem Analysis in Regions with Intensive Agriculture' with four PhD students at the University of Osnabrück; close collaboration with IFF Social Ecology, Vienna. [www.partizipa.net]
- May 2002 Conferral of PhD (Dr. iur.) by the Faculty of Law, Technical University of Dresden (summa cum laude)
- 1999 – 2001 Doctoral dissertation on 'Symbolic environmental legislation', Chair of Public Law, Prof. Dr. Martin Schulte, Technical University of Dresden; PhD fellow of the Volkswagen Foundation

Research grants

- 2008 – 2009 Grant by the Central Research Pool, University of Osnabrück, for preparation of a research project on agriculture and land use in collaboration with Unijuí, Brasil; joint application with A. Lenschow, M. Matthies, D. Gottschlich, total grant: 8 000 € for personnel, travel and consumables
- 2007 – 2008 Grant by the Central Research Pool, University of Osnabrück, for preparation of a large research project on the 'Impacts of Participatory Environmental Governance'; total grant: 10 000 € for personnel, travel and consumables
- 2003 – 2007 Grant by the German Ministry of Education and Research for the German-Austrian research project 'PartizipA': joint application with C. Pahl-Wostl, total grant, Osnabrück only: 490 000 € for personnel, travel and consumables
- 1999 – 2001 Grant by the Volkswagen Foundation, Hanover, for the research project 'Symbolic Environmental Legislation': joint application with M. Schulte; total grant: 61 000 DM for scholarship, travel and consumables

Scholarships

- 1999 – 2001 PhD scholarship from the Volkswagen Foundation
- 1992 – 1998 Scholarship from the German National Merit Foundation (Studienstiftung des deutschen Volkes)
- 1994 – 1995 Full scholarship from the German Academic Exchange Service for a study year at the Université Paris 7.
- 1987 – 1988 Scholarship from the Congress Bundestag Programme (Parlamentarisches Patenschaftsprogramm) for a one-year stay as an exchange student in California.

Higher Education

- 1993 – 1998 Geo-ecology at the University of Bayreuth.
Degree: Diplom with the grade 1.4 (corresponds to 'A' / excellent)
- 1995 – 1996 Gestion et Génie de l'Environnement at Université Paris 7, degree: Maîtrise en Génie de l'Environnement, titre d'Ingénieur-Maître
- 1991 – 1993 Geography and Chemistry at the University of Tübingen.
- 1981 – 1990 Humboldt-Schule Kiel.
Abitur with an average of 1.1 (corresponds to "A" / excellent)
- 1987 – 1988 Orland High School, California (High School Diploma)

Non-academic experience

- 1998 Internship, Gemini-Consulting, Bad Homburg, 3 ½ months, consultancy project concerning the strategic re-orientation of a logistics service provider
- 1995 Internship at Daimler-Benz, Berlin, Technology and Society Group, 2 months: explorative study on environmental quality targets
- 1995 – 1998 Association for Geoecology in Germany, Bayreuth, editor-in-chief of the journal 'Forum der Geoökologie'
- 1994 – 1997 Students' Initiative on Business Ecology at the University of Bayreuth: Publishing of the Commented University Calendar 'Ecology & Environment', and participation in projects on waste management policy
- 1990 – 1991 Military service in Idar-Oberstein and Rendsburg

Osnabrück, 16 May 2008

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Jens König'. The signature is written in a cursive style with a large initial 'J' and a long, sweeping underline.